Kryl Makes Hit; His Band Given Much Applause

Appreciative Audience Greets Master Bohemian Cornetist In Concerts Here Last Week—Soprano Soloist Gives Two Numbers.

Bohumir Kryl and his well-known band played before a very appreciative audience at the College Auditorium Thursday afternoon and evening, December 3.

Both programs were varied and included several of the best classic selections as well as a few of the light and more popular selections of the day.

Mr. Kryl lived up to his reputation as being one of the world's greatest cornetists and directors. His solos were the most popular features of the evening program and received encore after encore to which he responded graciously and generously. He amazed his audience with wonderful tones which were soft, sustained and flawless.

He was equally as wonderful as a director. He used neither score nor baton but directed entirely with his hands. To his slightest motion the band responded perfectly.

Miss Conrad, soprano, appeared in the second part of the program. She sang the "Aria from Roberto" by Meyerbeer at the evening program and "Home Sweet Home" for an encore. Her singing gave a charming balance and completeness to the evening's program.

The afternoon program was attended largely by high school and college students. The pupils of several of the rooms in the grade school downtown attended the concert in a body.

The following program was given in the afternoon:

S. Claus Headquarters This Week With Y. W. In Recreation Parlor

The most fun and thrills galore! I was so interested that I forgot all about my chemistry class. I dashed upstairs to explain to Mr. Wilson but he said, "That's all right, I was late to class myself, but I found some of the nicest things for presents for Christmas." He seemed so pleased and I could easily appreciate his ecstasy as it is so often difficult for a man to find just the right kind of gifts. I know Mr. Wilson must have gotten some of those dainty correspondence cards, stationery, place cards, and photo frames.

I saw "Bruckie" having a terrible time trying to decide whether to get a crumb tray, a lampshade or linen scarf for her mother. She finally decided on a lovely strand of mother of pearl beads.

"Ikoy" picked out some cuff links and a stick pin to give to "Sheenie" and a red pongee handkerchief for Ted. The two "Mills" bought cigarette

Cainesville, (bye on first round.)

A dark horse—or five of them to be exact—from Holt County, invaded the annual outdoor basketball tournament of the Northwest Missouri High School Association, and copped the championship cup for the 1925 season.

By winning four games in the tournament held November 20 and 21 in the new College gymnasium, the New Point team carried off the championship honors. Rosendale, Pickering and Easton were given the advantage in the pre-tournament game but the Holt County boys turned back the Easton and Pickering quintets and Pickering eliminated Rosendale by the close score of 8 to 6.

The championship game was probably the most interesting of the tournament. Both teams were keyed to the highest pitch and the tight defensive work showed each appreciated the strength of the other team. The first quarter ended with a scoreless tie. By the end of the half the New Point boys had tallied five points and still held Pickering scoreless.

But Pickering opened the third quarter with a rush and scored eight points while their opponents were making only two. Trailing by one point at the beginning of the final quarter, New Point made a determined effort to "put the game on ice." The score saw-sawed back and forth until the final whistle found them leading in a 14 to 12 score. Mr. Wells, acting president of the College, presented the loving cup to the winners.

All games of the tournament were characterized by hard, clean playing and excellent sportsmanship. Very few fouls were called by Sam Dubin of Bedford, Iowa, the referee. The following is the box score of the championship game.

40 Men, 4 With Letters, Report For B.B. Squad

Captain Aldrich, Blomfield, Joy and Pierpont Back for Old Positions. Much Promising New Material—Eight Conference Games.

Basketball practice starts in earnest this week, with four letter men from last season's team and about forty new men, in which there is much promising material. With eight conference games on the schedule and probably that many non-conference, the Bearcats have much hard training before them in trimming off the rough edges and developing that smooth working team that will represent S. T. C. later in the season.

With Captain Aldrich, Blomfield, Joy and Pierpont forming a nucleus, plus a number of new men that are showing up well in practice, Coaches Lawrence and Jones will undoubtedly furnish the local basketball fans with another winning cage team this season. In the earliest practices held, Bost, a former basketball star of McKendree College, Burks of Pickering High School, Ungles and Edwards of Maitland and Hedges of Conception have proven themselves likely candidates for the squad. Gibson, Baldwin, Chick, Willoughby, and Tucker former men on the squad but not letter men are back displaying the same fighting spirit characteristic of the Bearcats.

The following conference games have been scheduled, with a number of non-conference games that cannot be accurately stated this early in the season:

January 2—Kirkville there.
January 28—Cape Girardeau there.
February 5—Kirkville here.
February 10—Cape Girardeau here.
February 11—Springfield here.
February 18—Warrensburg there.
February 24—Springfield there.
March 5—Warrensburg here.

Coach Lawrence Is New M. I. A. A. Head

Coach H. F. "Shorty" Lawrence was chosen president of the Missouri Inter-collegiate Athletic Association at the annual meeting held in the Kansas City Athletic Club November 28. Other officers chosen were T. C. Reid of Warrensburg, vice-president, and Don Faurot of Kirksville, secretary-treasurer.

At this meeting the Association drafted the conference football and basketball games for the coming season. Coaches Lawrence and Jones arranged the following schedule for the Bearcats on the football gridiron next year:

Oct. 1—Missouri Wesleyan at St. Joseph.
Oct. 8—Open.
Oct. 15—Cape Girardeau here.
Oct. 26—Springfield there.
Oct. 29—Kirkville there.
Nov. 11—Warrensburg here.
Nov. —Tarkio here.

Orchestra Billed For Assembly
The College orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Hickernell, will give a concert at Assembly this week. The program for the concert has not been announced.

L. M. Eek Chosen New Teacher in Commerce Dept.

Former Faculty Member, Graduate of Northwestern and Gregg, Returns to Teach Accounting and Allied Business Subjects.

L. M. Eek, who has been connected with the Sisson Loan and Title Co. of this city for the past three years, has been secured to teach in the commerce department and will have classes in accounting and allied business subjects.

Mr. Eek holds the degree of Bachelor of Science from Northwestern University, with a major in economics. He is also a graduate of the Gregg School in Chicago.

Mr. Eek was associated with the College here from 1912 to 1914 during which time he served as secretary to President H. K. Taylor and President Ira K. Richardson. In addition to his duties as secretary, Mr. Eek taught classes in shorthand, typewriting and penmanship, and coached basketball and baseball. While at Northwestern Mr. Eek was a member of Tom Robinson's swimming team. He won letters in water basketball in 1915, 1916 and 1917.

Mr. Eek is a former president of the Chamber of Commerce and has been prominently identified in its work. He has appeared at the College on several assembly programs and gave the Armistice Day address this fall as representative of the American Legion. Mr. Eek served in the air service during the World War and after the Armistice was assistant producing manager of Hart, Schaffner & Marx, Chicago, before coming to Maryville.

The addition of a new faculty member has become necessary because of the large number of students enrolled in this department. In Business Law there is an enrollment of 57 as compared with 12 for the winter quarter in 1924. In accounting 74 are enrolled as compared to 32 one year ago. All other classes show substantial increases.

Fifty-two Sign To Do Practice Teaching Work

Many Students Seek Teaching Experience Under Supervision In Primary, Elementary and High School Departments of the College.

Fifty-two students have signed up this quarter to do practice teaching in the various departments of the College teacher-training work. This practice teaching is done under the supervision of different faculty members.

Nineteen students are teaching in the high school department, seventeen are interested in primary work and sixteen are teaching in the elementary grades of the Demonstration School.

The first high-school student assembly met Thursday. The main features of the meeting were: solving administrative problems, readjusting courses, making arrangements for various club meetings, and for orchestra practice. The department is becoming well organized and a good quarter's work is anticipated.

Seventeen new practice teachers are being started on the "rosy" path of pedagogy at the Franklin School this term. The teachers and the grades they are working with are:

First grade: Ethel Estes, Leona Pfander, Thelma Hodgins, Mary V. Reisley, and Mildred Omer.

Second grade: Marguerite Riley, Lillian James, Myrtle Bennett, and Catharine Holt.

Third and fourth grades: Lucile Sturm, Hazel Sullivan, Anna Marie Wilson, Lolah Best, Dorothy Reynolds, Esther Peoples, Mary Esther O'Banion, and Helen Pixler.

Mildred Omer who taught last quarter was so interested in her work that she signed up for another quarter, counting the credit as an elective.

Miss Souter is offering an advanced course in Primary Methods this quarter. Her first class in Primary Methods has increased from seventeen last quarter to sixty this quarter.

The demonstration school of the College, has made excellent progress under Miss Keith's supervision during the fall quarter. The total enrollment is fifty pupils. Twenty of them are from the Garrett School and thirty are from Maryville.

The average daily attendance was 48.4; the attendance percentage was 96 and there were two tardies.

The averages for the students of the Garrett School were daily attendance, 19; percentage of attendance, 95.4 per cent, and no tardies. The average for the other students were: daily attendance 29.4, percentage of attendance 96.6 per cent with two tardies.

Miss Keith has added new work to the school for the winter quarter. This includes class violin lessons from 8:30 to 9:30 on each Wednesday with Miss Dvorak as instructor, and corrective gymnastics, an addition to the general gym work which is to be taught by Marie Chandler under Miss Manley's supervision. The music will be taught by Margaret Mills under Mr. Gardner's supervision.

The other teachers in the Demonstration School are: Dorothy Snyder, Mildred Sawyers, Dorothy Leo White, Pauline Manchester, Hazel Hawkins, Frank Potts, Elliot Lister, Gladys Painter, Wilma Schmidt, Alice Adair, Anyce Lair, and Merle Shrove.

The equipment for the hot lunch project has been received by Miss Keith. Olata McCoy under the supervision of Miss Anthony will have charge of this project.

Former Students Back

Many familiar faces are evident in the student body this quarter. Among the former students who have returned are: Sylvia Littlejohn, Helen Miller, Thelma Reece, Tressa House, Virginia Reece, Thelma Keneth, Lorraine Maxey, Katherine Dowell, Donald Dowell, Noble Aldrich, and Raymond Houston.

An Intra-school Girls' Athletic Plan Adopted

New Schedule To Include Six Sports Designed To Reach Majority of Girls—Few Inter-Collegiate Games Planned.

A complete revision has been made in the girls' athletic program. The Kittenettes are no more. Undoubtedly there is a loss, but with that loss comes a feeling that athletics will now reach a majority of girls rather than a few.

Six sports are to be taken up: basketball, volleyball, soccer, indoor baseball, tennis and swimming. Class captains will be elected and class teams chosen for each sport. A tournament in each will be held, and, at the end, a varsity squad of the best players will be selected for the different sports.

Girls making the class team will receive a numeral and in addition three points. Those making the varsity squad will receive a letter and eight points. Points may be made in sportsmanship and posture, ten each; at the end of the year the twelve girls having the highest number of points will receive sweaters. Girls who are awarded sweaters must make nine points in both posture and sportsmanship.

Regular class scrimmages in basketball are now in progress. The tournament will be held beginning December 15.

It is possible that the varsity squad in basketball will have two inter-collegiate games with Missouri Wesleyan College at Cameron, although no definite arrangements have yet been made.

The class captains with Miss Manley will select the class teams next week. Roberta Cook heads the seniors, Margaret McMurry the juniors, Willetta Todd the sophomores and Maurine Aebly, the Freshmen.

Winter Enrollment Showing an Increase

The enrollment in the College proper for the winter quarter was 684 Monday evening of this week. This compares favorably with the enrollment last winter and when the Conservatory enrollment is checked the figures will probably show a slight increase over last year.

The total enrollment for the fall quarter just finished was 779 students, the largest number of any fall term in the history of the school.

New Library Books

Over one thousand dollars worth of new books have been purchased for the library, according to Mr. Wells. The list will include new writings on many different subjects. The new books are expected to arrive shortly and will materially increase the facilities of the library.

Surging, Pushing Crowd Proved To Be Only Course-Changing Fans

Stand back! Don't push! Don't shove! Take your time!

From all appearances the crowd that surged about the table in front of office 212 on the second floor last Friday night be taken for bargain hunters, save for the sprinkling of men in the crowd.

A closer examination revealed that members of the crowd weren't bargain hunters—but wise men and wise women—if you please.

How come? you ask, do you know they are wise men and wise women, and act like they did.

Well you see, wise people change their minds, and every person in that crowd had a yellow slip in his hand to prove he had changed his mind (or some teacher had changed it for him) since he enrolled. Since they had changed their mind, they wanted to change their courses and Mr. Foster the center of attraction at the table,

Gridiron Season Closes; Best in Bearcat History

S. T. C. Warriors Win Championship In Undeclared Season—Cop Eight All-Star Berths—Sixteen Awarded Varsity Letters.

The Bearcat football team completed the most successful season in the history of the school last Thanksgiving Day when it romped over the Tarkio aggregation, 42 to 15. In this last game, although the team piled up a twenty-seven point lead, the men were not playing up to standard and allowed the Tarkio team to score more points against them, than had been scored throughout the whole season by opposing teams.

During the season the Bearcats played eight games, won seven, tied one, and lost none. They scored 113 points to their opponents 28. With this record behind them and losing only three men by graduation the prospects are good for another championship team during the 1926 season. By graduation they will lose England as a tackle, Stone as a guard, and Hamilton as a backfield man.

Sixteen men will receive gold footballs for the championship they won, and sweaters as awarded each year. The following men will receive letters and stripes according to the number of years they have played on the team. Captain, England will receive four stripes and a star having played his last year with the Bearcats; Ends, Masters, and Hartman will receive three stripes; Willoughby, Moentmann, Stone, Potts, and Hamilton, two; Bost, Search, Graham, Cox, Miller, Lewis, and Wilson will have the one white stripe for their first year's service.

In the selection of the mythical state teams by C. E. McBride, sport editor of the Kansas City Star and Times, the Bearcats lead the M. I. A. A. "Ikoy" Ends was chosen for a first all-star back and given the honor of captain, while "Ted" Search was chosen quarterback and captain of the second mythical line-up. Graham and Stone were given guard positions, and Bost, an end, on the first all-star team. On the second team other than Search, Lewis was chosen as a guard, Lewis as a tackle, and Willoughby as a halfback.

The naming of Lewis as tackle was an error as Hartman, Moentmann or Captain England was probably intended.

The complete all-star teams as chosen by McBride are as follows:

First Eleven
Center—Stroup, Kirksville.
Guards—Stone, Maryville, and Graham, Maryville.

Library Will Give Book-finding Course

For the benefit of freshmen and other students, who are unfamiliar with the methods of finding and using books in the library, Mr. Wells announces that every afternoon after 4:20 there will be some one of the librarians who will gladly show students, who inquire, how to find books and how to use the card indexes and reference guides properly.

"ALL HANDS WERE ON DECK"

S. T. C. has a football championship, undisputed, and safely tucked away. All honors and the greatest praise to these fighting, hard-hitting Bearcats who performed so brilliantly and so honorably on the gridiron. They are justly entitled to their rewards of a Varsity letter, a gold football, a place of honor in athletic circles, and especially that great satisfaction of having done a hard job well.

But others come in for a share of the glory in winning the championship. Would such a successful season have been possible without Coach Lawrence and Coach Jones? Would it have been possible without the support, generous and loyal, of the student body and football fans of Maryville? Would it have been possible without the "scrubs" who gave much and got little, but punishment in practice?

Much could be said of the coaches, who worked night after night, worrying, studying and exerting every effort to produce a winning team. Much could be said of the support from the side lines, from the College and from the town. Much could be said of every player on the squad.

Reduced to its simplest form, the championship flag is a symbol of co-operation, "the everlasting" teamwork of every bloomin' soul."

Such lessons in cooperation will prove invaluable to every student in the days that follow his college life.

STRAIGHT THINKING AND DEBATE

Edward A. Filene, the great Boston merchant and student of human material, says: "Each of us must master the practical science of straight thinking before we can expect to make any real progress." Power to think straight depends upon initial capacity and on the education of that capacity. One can increase this power only by education.

Work in debate is designed to develop straight thinking in exactly those fields where it is in most need of development. To state a proposition, analyze it, gather and select evidence supporting it, arrange this evidence and make of it a well-rounded unit, and finally to be prepared and to defend your position against all attacks, cannot but develop thinking power in a high degree.

The old "Grad" tells us that his literary activity has proven of more value to him, by far, than like time spent in any other way. He means what he says. Take him seriously. Do not fail to seize your opportunity to learn how to think straight.

TO THE WINNERS AND THE LOSERS

Most of the college football schedules are completed. The experts are figuring out standings and will be trotting out the all-sectional and all-American teams. Some colleges are looking back over a disappointing or bad season. Some are satisfied it was no worse. Some are grinning on top of the heap or of a particular heap. It has been football's greatest season. There are conservative collegians who think it was entirely too great.

It is a hard-boiled game, not as damaging physically as it was years ago, probably, but a game in which success is the only thing tolerated. The players have been impressed by the fact that in public opinion they were bums if they lost. There may have been more sympathetic undergraduate feeling, but losing has caused a lot of growling and a good deal of it from coaches. The coach has his reputation at stake and he does not care to have his young men deflate him to a dime's worth. There's been a good deal of young agony in the game other than physical hurt.

With the heat of it over it is in place to say a word of appreciation for the whole works, for the losers as well as the winners, even for the boys whose season has been rated as disastrous if not disgraceful. Saturday after Saturday they have gone out to fight and many of them against the disappointment of seeing one failure pile up on another or of seeing an unexpected failure spoil a triumph.

The losers as well as the winners were made of good, game stuff. The American colleges send out about 40,000 young people every year. They can't all represent their schools in athletics, but the spirit which is represented in their athletics is their spirit, a determination to win which is an exuberance.

They have fought to the last, stuck to the last, and now whether they are nursing their wounds or flying their flags they can all join the procession of strong and courageous youth before the eyes of the nation. Such a nation will be irresistible.—Chicago Tribune.

The Open Forum

Coupon Books or Cash.

When I first heard of the new plan of raising our incidental fee to fifteen dollars and issuing coupon books which would enable every student to attend all the athletic events, the musical entertainments and picture shows I thought how wonderful that would be. But I've changed my mind and here's why.

I went to hear the Russian Smphonie Choir. Right behind me sat two couples who were evidently having their first dates together as the two fellows were trying so hard to be entertaining. When the basso soloist sang unusually low, the boys would make some clever (?) remark about a bullfrog which would bring a titter of appreciation from the girls. When the choir was singing softly, these four seemed to think that now was an excellent time to talk about what had happened that day.

I thought maybe I'd have better luck next time so I went to see "The Ten Commandments." This time I drew two boys as entertainers. They read all the lines aloud, making some "Dumb" remark about each one. They hooted at Moses when he was receiving the Ten Commandments from God, in general, entertaining us in such a manner that the picture was spoiled for me.

At the afternoon concert of Kryl's Band I sat behind two little high school girls who spent the two hours discussing in turn grades, teachers, classes, dresses, and boys. Beside me was a woman who found great "glee" in keeping time to each selection with her feet, hands, and head.

The climax came that night at the concert when a bunch of college boys and girls talked aloud all during the playing of the Largo from "The New World Symphony."

This may sound like a complaint from a "hard-boiled" student, but it isn't. It is a tragic situation; therefore I have changed my mind about the coupon books. I believe if the people had to pay a dollar to hear a concert, they would at least respect their dollar and try to get their money's worth.

Y. M. Establishes Employment Bureau

The college Y. M. C. A. has organized a labor bureau for the benefit of college students who are working their way through school. The Y. M. C. A. receives no commission for this work. They are having cards filled out with the names of all boys wanting work. In addition to the name and address of the student the cards will contain the kind of labor wanted and the time at which the student can work. These cards will be filed with Mr. Wells, one of the faculty advisers of the Y. M. C. A. at his desk in the college library. When a call for work comes in to a Y. M. C. A. member or to Miss Hudson in the general office, it can be sent to Mr. Wells who can immediately fill the request from those in the library. Those having work which they want done should get in touch with Mr. Wells or a member of the college Y. M. and the organization will recommend a capable worker at a reasonable price.

Everything's Lovely; "Goose Hangs High"

"The Goose Hangs High," hailed as one of the greatest family pictures ever screened, because of its simple story, human characterization and flawless direction, will be shown in the College auditorium Friday and Saturday of this week. Minor activity coupons or thirty-five cents will admit to this picture.

In its original form it was a popular stage success by Lewis Beach, but Cruze, with the help of his scenarists, Walter Woods and Anthony Coldewey, has incorporated comedy situations and bits of "business" that were out of the question in the spoken version because of the limitations of the stage.

As it unfolds on the screen, there is an unaffected naturalness about it, an air of homey realism that stamps it as refreshingly different from the usual run of picture plays.

The story concerns itself with an average American family—typical every-day folks and develops the sort of dramatic, pathetic and comic incidents that people experience in real life.

The plot hinges on the sacrifices of the Ingals parents and the selfishness of their children. This is clearly brought out in the earlier scenes of the film when the children, with characteristic thoughtlessness, desert their parents on Christmas eve to celebrate the holiday with their own friends.

A crisis threatens when the father loses his job and the children face the prospect of having to earn their own living. The manner in which they work out the family salvation is interestingly and vividly depicted.

The acting of the admirably selected cast is one of the outstanding features of this photoplay. All of the leading players, which include Constance Bennett, Myrtle Steadman, Esther Ralston, George Irving and Edward Poil, Jr., give very creditable performances and the minor characters are also effectively portrayed.

"The Goose Hangs High" is enthusiastically recommended to every film fan in search of excellent entertainment.

Mr. Keller occupied the pulpit of the First M. E. Church, Sunday, November 20 in the absence of the pastor, Rev. C. C. James.

During the vacation Miss Carrie Hopkins and Miss Helen Hopkins entertained as their guest David K. Cunningham of Decatur, Illinois. Mr. Cunningham is a nephew of Miss Helen Hopkins.

Victory Dance for Bearcats.

A final celebration for our victorious football team was in the form of a dancing party for the entire student body and faculty, Friday night in the east gymnasium. Those in the receiving line were: Coach and Mrs. Lawrence, Coach and Mrs. Jones, Sam England, captain of football team, and Ray Blomfield, Student Council president.

The gymnasium was decorated with the "M" blankets which were draped over the railings around the balcony.

Bronze Letter Party.

Dean Barnard entertained the members of the Bronze Letter Club of the College last night at her home at 329 Grand Avenue.

Picnic by Perrin Hall Bunch.

The "Perrin Hall Bunch" and their friends took advantage of the beautiful weather and their freedom from study Tuesday evening by going to Tunnel Woods on a winter roast. The following were present: David Nicholson, Everett Wright, Mervin McNulty, Kenneth Fouts, Ward Barnes, Forest Brown, Ernest Schenkel, Marguerite Dowling, Mary Ruth Carlman, Letha Wilson, Helen Gmel, Marion Clark, Minnie Stadler, Clara Hollar, Lorene Shunk and Mae Shunk.

Entertains Football Squad.

Dean Barnard was elected president of the Association of Deans of Women of Missouri at its recent meeting in St. Louis. Dean Barnard succeeds Mrs. Bessie Leach Priddy, dean of women of the University of Missouri, as president of the Association.

Dean Barnard says the Association is confronted with the problem of establishing a dean of girls in each high school in the state where there are more than fifty girls.

Two Teams Coached By Bearcats, Battle

The High School football gridiron at Bethany on Thanksgiving Day was the scene of a battle fought between two teams coached by former students, and Bearcats of S. T. C.

The Ridgeway eleven coached by Lon Wilson, former captain of the Bearcat eleven, met the Bethany eleven coached by Leston Webb, four-year man on the Bearcat squad, and waged a hard fought battle, Ridgeway emerging victorious 12 to 7.

Coach Lon Wilson has completed a very successful football season, having only thirteen men on the squad, and yet winning a large per cent of games played.

Many Students Use Library Evenings

Just a few words regarding the use of the library in the evening. The library is open and ready for the students use at 7 o'clock in the morning and does not close until 9 o'clock at night. Last quarter the average number of students using the library from 6 until 9 o'clock in the evening was about eighty. This speaks well for the student body in taking advantage of the library in the evening and it is hoped that this quarter will see the average even higher. To the student who is handicapped in not having the proper surroundings conducive to studying the library offers advantages in the way of light, warmth and comfortable desks, to say nothing of reference material close at hand.

Tryouts for the debating team will be held December 7 and December 15 at 4:30 o'clock in room 426. At this time twelve persons will be selected to form the debating squad. This squad will be trained on the questions to be debated and six will then be chosen from the squad to represent Maryville in the debates. Mr. Wallin states that between twenty-five and thirty have reported for the coming tryouts.

Colbert and Max Speak to Y. M. C. A.

The last meeting of the Y. M. C. A. before the end of the fall quarter, consisted mainly of talks given by David Max and Ned Colbert. The former emphasized the necessity of having reserve force, such as moral and mental, applying them to the students in college.

The second talk made by Ned Colbert consisted of a new significance to "The Heavens Declare the Glory of God." The speaker traced the effect of wonders of the heavens on the life, religion and worship of the ancient civilizations. He also brought out that "astronomers are believers in God, for when they study the heavens they are forced to acknowledge the work of a Master Hand."

In 1921 she was again at the St. Joseph show, winning reserve championship that time. That calf brought her a silver cup, a gold watch and $50 in prize money. The calf sold for $28 a hundred, or $250. The money was invested in pure bred Angus heifers. From the sale of their products she is putting herself through school. ## The Stroller

By ????

Life is just one damn quarter after another. And the Stroller is back in school with a problem in perspective for the art department. She wants to know why the Thanksgiving looked so much longer on November 24 than it did on December.

Returning on the train with a "gob" of other students a person might have gotten a wrong impression why the students were returning. A stranger might have thought some were returning out of curiosity to see what their grades were for last quarter. A few boys were wondering about football sweaters while others were discussing diplomatic ways of severing social relations as the pre-Christmas days draw nigh.

And the girls! I know "Mac" has a girl in his home town, or who do you suppose Fred dated while I was gone. Was heard from a rear coach seat. Others were wondering if Mary did get a "rock" while she was at home or if Alice would bring back any new dresses.

So it went. But strolling on a rocky railroad coach isn't half so easy as strolling around the halls. We went over to enroll the first day and got quite a surprise when we got up on the second floor. Only a few in the hall and the library as quiet as a mortuary. We wondered if we had made a mistake and had returned a day too soon but shortly discovered that all the registration was taking place in the west gym.

But we are all signed up and can sing "Back From Home and Broke." We donated our fifteen dollars, again, got a coupon book changed our course, got our grades, got our books at the bookstore, and had two dates since school opened.

Talking about the bookstore reminds me. You know we're taking Journalism again this quarter and Mr. Slats told us to get the "Century Handbook of Writing" from the bookstore and brush up on our English. It wouldn't be fair to tell who had this book in composition last quarter but here's an unfinished "Essay on Man" which she left in the book:

"Men are what women marry. They have two hands, two feet, and sometimes one idea and one collar at a time. Making a husband out of a man is the highest plastic art known to civilization. It requires science, sculpture, common sense, faith, hope, and charity, especially charity."

"If you flatter a man, you frighten him to death; and if you don't, you bore him to death. If you permit him to make love to you, he gets tired of you in the end; and if you don't he gets tired of you in the beginning."

"If you believe him in everything, you soon cease to interest him; and if you argue with him in everything you cease to charm him. If you believe everything he tells you, he thinks you are a fool; and if you don't, he thinks you are a cynic. If you wear gay colors, rouge, and a startling hat, he hesitates to take you out; and if you wear a little brown suit, he takes you out and stares at the women in gay colors, rouge, and startling hats. If you are a clinging vine type, he doubts whether you have a brain; and if you are a modern advanced and independent woman, he doubts whether you have a heart."

"If you are silly, he longs for a bright mate, and if you are brilliant, he longs for a plain mate. If you are popular with other men, he is jealous; and if you are not, he is afraid to marry a wall flower."

"Gash-Darn Men, Anyway."

P. S. Does a fountain pen have three parts? Here's what we just read on the bulletin board: "Lost, the best part of a fountain pen."

Christmas Seals On Sale This Week

The annual sale of the Red Cross anti-tuberculosis Christmas seals will open at the College Wednesday of this week. Mr. Phillips, in charge of the sale, has announced. The canvass will be conducted among the faculty members, and students by the members of the W. A. A., who conducted the sale last year. The girls will have the five-dollar bonds for sale as well as the penny seals. The sale will last two days, Thursday and Friday. Miss Manley will direct the work of the girls.

Mr. Phillips says that sixty percent of the funds derived from the sale will go for health work here in Nodaway County including the College. This organization has done much in the past year in the way of distributing health literature, giving nursing service and holding tubercular clinics.

College Students to Judge H. S. Debates

The first match debate in this district will be held at Barnard, December 8 between Barnard and Millmore. Burdette Yoo, Clarence Bush, and Fred Street will judge the debate.

The Bronze Letter Club has selected a group of college students who are capable of judging high school debates and orations. Those chosen were: Burdette Yoo, Clarence Bush, David Nicholson, Richard Baker, Wilson Craig, David Max, Day Carr, and George Newman.

Any of the High schools in this district, who wish the services of these judges may write to Day Carr.

Department Doings

English

The English Department is offering a new course in Literary Appreciation this quarter, known as English 75. Miss Dykes is teaching this class which is designed principally for people who are taking very little English but who realize the value gained from English classes.

They will take up the study of poetry, drama, short story, novel and essay, using both the modern and older works in American and English literature.

Miss Bowman reports that classes in English composition are full and overflowing, there being 126 students in one section and 77 in the other. However, by Monday the classes will be divided into smaller sections.

Mathematics

The classes in trigonometry and algebra, which are taught by Miss Helwig, have a total enrollment of fifty students.

Art

The art department has assigned the art work in the Franklin School to Alice Dodds and has given the art in the high school section of the College to Katherine Harrison.

New Physics Equipment

New equipment has just arrived and been installed in the Physics Department. It consists of a new induction coil, which will be used largely in fundamental radio instruction; a Lodge resonator, a static machine, new heaters and meters. The new material is used mainly in the course in wireless.

Music

The music department has added several new students to the enrollment of the last quarter. The violin department under Miss Dvorak has eight new violin pupils with two studying cello. The voice department under Mr. Bronson has an additional enrollment of eight.

Miss Dvorak spent the Thanksgiving vacation at her home in Algonquin,

Mr. Hiekernell spent the Thanksgiving vacation in Tarkio.

Agriculture

The new machine shop and granary is under construction on the campus near the rest of the farm buildings out north-west of the track and football field.

The new building is to be thirty by sixty feet and is being constructed, three walls and the foundation from the brick taken from the old Seminary building, while the front will be of the same red tile material characteristic of the rest of the farm buildings. It will be used after completion to store the farm machinery, ample space is provided for a crib and granary for small grain, it will have a feed grinding room, and a work room or shop. The building is now about one-third completed and the work is being pushed rapidly as possible.

The Greenhouse

New changes made recently in the greenhouse has made it a very attractive feature of our school.

The benches have been re-arranged, and two new ones added, permitting the addition of new features. Sweet peas, snapdragons and poppies are in full bloom, standing out quite in contrast to our weather on the outside.

S. C. Richeson Offered Position

S. C. Richeson, a graduate of this College and now superintendent of schools at Plattsburg, has been offered the position as state manager of sales for Ginn & Co., according to the Plattsburg Leader. Mr. Richeson was formerly high school inspector in this College district.

Mr. Richeson has not announced whether or not he will accept the position.

Miss Laura Margaret Raines broadcast a reading from the University broadcasting station at Lincoln, Wednesday. She is a former student, now attending school at the University of Nebraska.

? CURIOUS ? CUB

The Curious Cub is also interested in "Red" Grange. Interested to know what "Shorty" and "Pete" and some of the Bearcats thought about him entering professional football.

Coach Lawrence—"Very few are so fortunate as "Red" Grange in having opportunity placed at their feet. It is an opportunity if he uses it as a means to secure funds to further his education and returns again to school next fall. In this light believe he has acted wisely."

Coach Jones—"I think Grange has made a mistake in leaving school, and not only that but he induced a number of his team-mates to leave with him. I think he might have first finished his education in the University."

Paul Stone—"It is no more than any other person would do under the circumstances. Grange has trained for this therefore he is justified in reaping the benefits."

George Barkley—"Professional football will not always be supported as it is now and I think Grange might have retained more of his popularity in later life had he not entered professional football."

Sam England—"Professional football is not entirely different from any other professional line. Grange has trained for this as every student trains in his chosen line, therefore with the aim he has in view I see no reason why he is to be criticised. I think he is to be congratulated for his success as we congratulate any successful business man."

"Ikey" Ends—"I'll sell my too any day for twenty thousand and a black eye."

Gower Girls County Champs.

The girls' basketball team of Gower High School won the championship of Clinton County after playing through a round-robin schedule with the other teams of the county. Gower and Converse tied in percentage so met on the Plattsburg court where the championship was decided by Gower winning 23 to 7. The Gower team is coached by Miss Clara S. Greaves.

Misses Mabel and Laura Margaret Raines, former students of S. T. C. spent Thanksgiving vacation at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Raines.

Miss L. E. Steiman, a former student of S. T. C. is now teaching in Sidney, Montana. Miss Steiman is working toward a B. S. degree with language as her major.

The Upset of a Little Lamp

The disastrous fire at Chicago in 1871, resulting from a cow upsetting a small lamp, shows how little things grow into enormous proportions.

It was not the kicking over of a lamp that started a little store but it was the little store itself that started a business growing into one of National importance.

The first J. C. Penney Company Store—then known as the Golden Rule Store—transacted less than a $29,000 business the first year. Less than a quarter of century later, we find it with 676 Stores, doing a business of approximately $90,000,000.

(That's a reward of service!)
